MORGAN'S RETURN DISAPPOINTING

Did Not Result in Upward Trend of Prices.

MARKET RATHER HEAVY

Rains in Northwest Fail to Revive Selling as Crop Experts Expected.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, June 25.—Stocks closed without material changes to-day, except in a few specializes. Minneapolis and St. Louis preferred proke 15 points on a single transaction of 100 shares, and Wells Pargo advanced $14 on the purchase of 200 shares. St. Paul showed a net gain of more than a point, but most of the standard issues fluctuated in small fractions.

Early in the day the market was inclined to be heavy. London was lower. Heavy rains in the Northwest did not revive the market as crop experts hoped they would. The revival came after announcement was made that the New York Central had filed a schedule of freight increases to become effective August 1. This is subject, of course, to revision by the interstate Commerce Commission, but it is understood that the rates have all been discussed with shippers, and will be allowed.

A Disappointment.

J. P. Morgan's home-coming was a bitter disapointment to Wall Street, for the market had been advanced very largely in the hope that he would do something to put it still higher. He was not very good natured when he arrived, and the stock market at once began a decline, with losses in some issues of 4 points in twentyfour hours. The bears immediately became active. Rumors concerning Morgan's health were put in circulation.

four hours. The bears immediately became active. Rumors concerning Morgan's health were put in circulation.

The wheat crop was destroyed some more, in spite of heavy rains in the Northwest, and so far did the bears go that a humorous prediction of panic in a newspaper organ for Wall Street bankers was taken up and used as though made seriously.

Support was withdrawn from Morgan issues, and to an outsider the market had the appearance of speculative manipulation for the purpose of entrapping another short interest. Morgan ciaims to be in good health, and he looks it. No doctors are known to be in attendance on him. The extreme loss feared in the spring wheat helt is not enough to interfere seriously with prices, and, besides, the rains of the last few days have quitted all reasonable fears in that direction. Canada will not raise as much as expected, for the hot, dry weather has hurt the Canadian crop, but that is all the better for the United States, since it will have some for export this year. With a total crop area, 12,000,000 areas larger than last year, and with last year's crop failure, the agricultural outlook in many respects in the United States is good. Roasons for selling stocks must be looked for elsewhere than in the agricultural region just now. Even good crops cannot prevent an ultimate decline in the market in the autumn, and a crop failure would start a decline much sooner. But all kinds of business men agree that orders aiready in the hands of manufacturers and freight aiready in sight guarantee heavier business late this summer and early this autumn than usual.

Talk of Dear Money.

To such an extent does this business congestion promise to go that there is already talk of dear money this fall, with possible recourse to Aldrich currency to help out. It is only call funds that are very easy at the moment, because speculation in stocks has been reduced to a minimum. Speculation in land and commodities is going on at a great rate.

Amalgamated Copper was among the first of the list to show any decided railying power. Its early loss was also comparatively small.

Owing to the small orders that make up the present activity, or lack of activity, in the steel trade, there is some bearish talk on United States Steel. There is no evidence of inquiry for any large quantity of rails.

New York, June 25.—The cotton market was very quiet to-day, there being nothing apparently in the news to induce fresh operations of any consequence for over the week-end, while the scattering interest had private week. The close, was quiet and steady, not 1 (26 points lower. New Orleans, La., June Z.—Cotton—Spot cotton unchanged; middling, 145c. Cotton futures opened quiet at an advance of 123 points on the old crop months and a decline of 123 points on the new crop. Cables were not as good as expected, but the bulls offered support to the old crop months with the result that July sold at an advance of 6 points in the early tradig. The new crop in the same of 122 points.
